

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

NEW LIFE

Salvation

2 Corinthians 5:17 (NLT)

This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!

Ephesians 2:10 (NLT)

For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.

Welcome to your new life! The Bible tells us that God gives each of us new life the moment we receive the gift of salvation that He offers through His Son, Jesus. Receiving salvation means believing that Jesus is the Son of God who came to the earth to die for our sins so that we could be forgiven and restored to our relationship with God.

Deciding to follow Jesus is the best and most life-changing decision you will ever make! You might even feel overwhelmed as you truly step into life with God and learn about what living a life with God means. Be assured that you are not alone! We all learn and grow one step at a time as we walk out this journey day by day.

God is now at work in you; He is changing you from the inside out. Change can be intimidating, but God promises that He only changes us for the better. We don't wake up the day after receiving salvation to a different physical life, so what does having a new life mean? It means that God gives us a fresh start—He erases all records of our past sins and mistakes. It also means that God's Spirit, the Holy Spirit, is at work inside of us. When we make the decision to believe in Jesus, the Bible says that God makes His home in our hearts and begins to transform us. You can be confident that regardless of your past, your mistakes, or even how you feel now, God is at work inside of you creating new life.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

NEW IDENTITY

Salvation

1 John 3:1 (TPT)

Look with wonder at the depth of the Father's marvelous love that He has lavished on us! He has called us and made us His very own beloved children.

Romans 8:15-16 (NLT)

So, you have not received a spirit that makes you fearful slaves. Instead, you received God's Spirit when He adopted you as His own children. Now we call Him, "Abba, Father." For His Spirit joins with our spirit to affirm that we are God's children.

In our new life, God also gives us a new identity. We are now defined by what God says about us, not by what we do or by what other people have said about us. God replaces our old identities (e.g. failure, unloved, divorced, mistake, reject, addict, unwanted, etc.) with a new one: His beloved sons and daughters.

Learning to live in our new identity is a process. We start by learning to think about ourselves the way that God thinks about us—the Bible calls this process “renewing our minds.” We renew our minds as we spend time with God and study His Word. As we discover what God says about us and believe it, our actions and thoughts begin to change in response to the truth about who we were made to be. There is no one better than God to tell us who we really are because He made us! Here are some truths about who God says you are — loved (John 3:16), chosen (Colossians 3:12), forgiven (Ephesians 1:7), free (2 Corinthians 3:17), and His child (1 John 3:1).

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

WHY WE NEED SALVATION

Salvation

1 Peter 3:18 (NLT)

Christ suffered for our sins once for all time. He never sinned, but He died for sinners to bring you safely home to God.

Romans 3:23-25 (NLT)

For everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God's glorious standard. Yet God, in His grace, freely makes us right in his sight. He did this through Christ Jesus when He freed us from the penalty for our sins. For God presented Jesus as the sacrifice for sin. People are made right with God when they believe that Jesus sacrificed His life, shedding His blood.

God sent Jesus as our Savior because the world has a problem called sin. Sin is defined as “missing the mark.” All of us have missed the mark and come up short of God’s perfect standards in our lives.

God is so good and so holy that He cannot be in relationship with anything corrupted by sin. Sin must be paid for in order to be erased in God’s eyes, and according to the Bible, the way to pay for sin is through sacrifice.

Before Jesus came, people would offer animal sacrifices to God in order to temporarily pay for their sins. But Jesus came to offer a sacrifice that would pay for all sin, for all time. Jesus lived a life that was completely perfect, untouched by sin. Because He was perfect, He became the perfect sacrifice, accounting for the sins of the whole world.

Jesus’ sacrifice made a way for us to receive the gift of salvation by grace through faith.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

WE CAN'T EARN IT

Salvation

Ephesians 2:8 (TPT)

For it was only through this wonderful grace that we believed in Him. Nothing we did could ever earn this salvation, for it was the gracious gift from God that brought us to Christ!

Romans 3:22-24 (NIV)

There is no difference between Jew and Gentile, for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and all are justified freely by His grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus.

One of the most unique factors of Christianity is the grace that we have received through Jesus. Religion tells people that they have to earn right standing with God; it says that acceptance by God is entirely based on our behavior.

Jesus came to flip religion on its head and establish a new way of relating to God. He did the work of making us right with God. Now, our part is believing that His work was and is enough to bring us into relationship with God.

Jesus came to show us that God's love is so unlike our human love. He showed us that God's love is completely unconditional! He doesn't love us more when we do the right thing or love us less when we mess up. He loves us completely, all of the time. You can be confident that regardless of your past sins and mistakes, God's grace now covers you completely.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

WHO IS GOD?

Salvation

1 John 4:8 (NLT)

...for God is Love.

Psalms 103:8 (NLT)

The Lord is compassionate and merciful, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love.

Isaiah 40:28 (NLT)

The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of all the earth. He never grows weak or weary. No one can measure the depths of his understanding.

As we start our journey with God, it is important that we know the true nature of God. Often, people have distorted ideas about who God is from past experiences. If you were raised in a home where God was never talked about, you might think He is distant or uninvolved. If you were raised in a religious household, you might think that God is harsh and angry, waiting for you to mess up. Whatever ideas you have about who God is, He wants to show you who He really is. He does this through the work of the Holy Spirit inside us and through the Bible.

His Word tells us that He is kind, loving, compassionate, just, slow to anger, holy, righteous, faithful, eternal, merciful, and only good. It tells us that He is our loving Father (1 John 3:1), that He is always with us (John 14:16), and that He has all power (Psalm 62:11).

It's important you know that God is for you, He loves you, and He wants to be in relationship with you.

WHO IS GOD – THE TRINITY

Salvation

John 1:14 (NLT)

So, the Word became human and made His home among us. He was full of unfailing love and faithfulness. And we have seen His glory, the glory of the Father's one and only Son.

John 14:26 (NIV)

But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name (Jesus), will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

We established that God is love, that He is the Creator of the world, and that He is Sovereign, but being a Triune God is another important aspect of who he is. Triune means three, so in other words, God is three persons, completely unified. The three beings that make up who God is—God the Father, God the Son (Jesus), and God the Holy Spirit. Each of these is unique, yet totally cohesive and consistent with the other parts.

God is the ultimate ruler, our Father, and Creator. Jesus is the Son of God, who has been with God from the beginning of time, but when the time was right God sent Jesus to save us from the power of sin and to reconcile us with Himself. The Holy Spirit is how God works in the earth today. He lives inside of us, transforming us and guiding us in everyday life.

WATER BAPTISM

Salvation

Matthew 28:19 (ESV)

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.

1 Peter 3:21 (NLT)

And that water is a picture of baptism, which now saves you, not by removing dirt from your body, but as a response to God from a clean conscience. It is effective because of the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Now that you have received salvation, there is another step that God asks us to take—water baptism. Jesus asked everyone who would believe in Him to be water baptized as a public declaration of their faith in Him. Baptism is our response to what God has done for us, as 1 Peter 3:21 says. It is a symbolic act of what Jesus did for us. Being lowered into the water represents Jesus' death as well as our own sinful nature that should have brought us death. Being raised out of the water represents Jesus' resurrection and the new life we have because of Jesus.

Through Baptism, we publicly declare that we are followers of Jesus as we put action to our faith by obeying what Jesus commanded us to do—be baptized in His Name.

*We hold monthly baptism services here at Grace. For more information, go to grace.one/nextsteps.

WHAT IS THE BIBLE? PART 1

DAY

The Bible
and Prayer

2 Timothy 3:16 (NLT)

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right.

The Bible is one of the greatest gifts that God has given us. It is a source of wisdom and direction for us as we walk out our journey with Him. The Bible tells us about God's faithfulness throughout history, His promises for our lives, and His plan for the future.

From cover to cover, the Bible is God's Word recorded by various people whom He chose at various times. Written across a span of 1,500 years, the Bible contains 66 books written by about 40 different authors. Only God could put together a book with a perfectly cohesive message using 40 different people, across more than a millennium.

The Bible is not just a valuable resource of instruction, but it is the foundation of our lives. Through Scripture, we learn how to handle day-to-day situations such as how to manage our finances, how to treat our family and friends, and how to work well on our jobs. Even more important though, the Bible tells us how to build our relationship with God and grow closer with Him.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

WHAT IS THE BIBLE? PART 2

The Bible
and Prayer

Romans 15:4 (TPT)

Whatever was written beforehand is meant to instruct us in how to live. The Scriptures impart to us encouragement and inspiration so that we can live in hope and endure all things.

If you have ever opened the Bible, you might know that it is divided into two sections—the Old Testament and the New Testament. Everything that happened in the Old Testament set the stage for Jesus to come. The New Testament tells us what happened when He did.

The Old Testament gives us the account of how God created the world, and how sin came into the earth and corrupted creation. It tells us about the people God chose to bring His plans to pass and prophecies (supernatural insights) about the Savior that God promised to send the world.

The New Testament can be summed up in one Name—Jesus. The first four books of the New Testament, called the Gospels, tell us about who Jesus was, how He lived, and why He came. The books following the Gospels are written by His followers who were living in response to everything Jesus accomplished when He was with them. The New Testament books tell us about God's plan for His church and how to live out Christianity in day-to-day life, in relationship with God and each other. We recommend starting to read the Gospel of John in the New Testament if you are new to the Bible. It tells all about the Good News of Jesus and how that changes our lives.

PSALMS AND PROVERBS

DAY
10

The Bible
and Prayer

Two of the most unique books in the Bible are Psalms and Proverbs. Psalms is a collection of prayers and songs written to God; Proverbs is a book of wisdom and instruction.

Many of the Psalms were written by a man named David who was the King of Israel. King David was a man after God's heart, according to Scripture, but the Psalms that he wrote tell us that he still faced trials. In the midst of the obstacles David faced, he was honest with God about his hardships. In the book of Psalms, we find encouragement and hope for our everyday lives, as we learn what it means to walk with God through pain and joy, loss and victory.

Written by the wisest man in the Bible, King Solomon, the book of Proverbs gives us practical principles for everyday life. From instructing us about relationships to handling our finances, there is counsel in Proverbs applicable to every circumstance. As you begin reading the Bible, reading one Psalm and Proverb daily can be a great source of hope and wisdom for you.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

PRAYER

The Bible
and Prayer

1 John 5:14 (KJV)

And this is the confidence that we have toward God, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us.

One of the greatest gifts that we have received as believers is the ability to talk to God through prayer. Often, prayer is seen as a religious duty or obligation, but prayer is a privilege! We have complete access to talk to God and be confident that He hears us.

We don't have to pray eloquent prayers – you don't need a thesaurus to pray. We can simply talk to God like we talk to a friend. The Bible says that God is looking for people who will be truthful before Him, not people who are putting on a religious show.

In the same way we spend time getting to know our friends through conversation, we get to know God through our daily communication with Him.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

THE POWER OF AGREEMENT

12

The Bible
and Prayer

Matthew 18:20 (NRSVUE)

For where two or three are gathered together in my name, I (Jesus) am there among them.

Prayer not only helps us get to know God, but the Bible tells us that through prayer, God begins to change situations in our lives and in the lives of those around us. God could work independently if He wanted to, but God wants us to participate with Him as He works—one way we do this is through prayer.

Prayer is the act of extending our faith toward God. Jesus said that faith even the size of a mustard seed is enough for God to work with. If you are reading this, and wanting to know more about prayer, it is more than likely that you have more faith than the size of a mustard seed! Know that simple prayers offered in faith to God are powerful (Matthew 17:20).

The Bible tells us that God is near in a unique way when we pray with other believers. Prayer is powerful when we pray alone, but when we are unified with others, the Bible says that God's presence is there.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

WHERE TO START - THE FIRST FIFTEEN

The Bible
and Prayer

Psalm 119:15-17 (TPT)

I will meditate on your precepts and consider your ways. I delight in your decrees; I will not neglect your word. Be good to your servant while I live, that I may obey your word.

The daily habit of spending time with God is an important part of growing with God. This is not a religious ritual that we participate in, but it's an intentional investment into our relationship with God. Just as we set time aside to spend with our friends and family to strengthen our relationships with them, as we spend time with God through reading His Word and prayer, our relationship is strengthened.

A simple way to put this into practice is by implementing something we call the First Fifteen. Set aside the first fifteen minutes of your day to read the Bible and spend time with Jesus through prayer.

Practically, this looks like finding a place without distractions like a specific room in your house, a coffee shop, or even somewhere outside, where you can be with God. Begin to talk to Him like you would a friend. After you talk, wait to see if He would impress anything on your heart—this is a two-way conversation! Grab your Bible and read a chapter or two of Scripture, paying attention to anything that jumps out at you. During this time, keep a journal of what you are praying for and what you feel God is speaking to you. It is amazing to reflect back and see what God has done in your life.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

THE POWER OF DECLARATIONS

The Bible
and Prayer

Proverbs 18:21 (AMP)

Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruits...

Did you know that the words you speak have power? The Bible even says that words have the power of life and death! Because words are so powerful, we should begin to change how we talk about ourselves and our circumstances. When we align our words with the truth of what God says, His life and peace will begin to transform our lives.

Here are a few powerful declarations to begin saying over yourself:

- I am not a victim of my past, but an overcomer through Jesus. (1 Corinthians 15:57)
- I am a new creation in Christ. (2 Corinthians 5:17)
- I have been strategically designed and equipped for my unique purpose. (Psalm 139:14)
- I am free from all strongholds, addictions, and bad habits that have held me back. (2 Corinthians 3:17)
- I am completely loved and accepted by God. (Romans 8:38-39)

We encourage you to take hold of these promises and begin declaring them over yourself in faith.

Write a few of these declarations on sticky notes and put them in your house, your car, and your workspace. As we constantly keep what God says about us in focus, our thoughts begin to align with the truth of God's Word.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

TAKING INVENTORY

Relationships

1 Thessalonians 5:11 (NLT)

So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing.

As Jesus was carrying out His work on the earth, He didn't do it alone. In fact, He chose a core team of 12 people, all with varying personalities and strengths, to be with Him as He ministered. If Jesus placed a high value on relationships, how much more should we!

Taking inventory of your current relationships is a great way to determine what type of relationships you need to focus on developing and which ones you might need to separate yourself from.

Here are a few helpful questions to ask yourself while evaluating your relationships:

- Do I feel encouraged or inspired to know God more after spending time with this person?
- Do I feel weighed down with negativity or uplifted with encouragement after being with this person?
- Is this a person I can trust with the things that are important to me?

After answering these questions, you probably have an idea if the relationship is worth investing your time and energy into. If it's not, then you might need to step away from the relationship for a season. You do not need to completely cut off friends or family, but you sometimes need to place a higher priority on different relationships in order to grow in your faith.

One of the ways you can find encouraging relationships at Grace is by joining a group. Go to grace.one/nextsteps to find a group.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

RELATIONSHIPS – WORTH THE INVESTMENT

Relationships

Proverbs 27:17 (NIV)

As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another.

Romans 12:5 (NLT)

So in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.

God created us with a need for connection through meaningful relationships. In Genesis 2:18 God gave Adam, the first man, a partner because it was not good for him to be alone. God provided for Adam's need for connection, and He does the same for us today through the community of our local church.

As you walk out life with God, one of your greatest sources of growth and encouragement will come from the people that you surround yourself with. Healthy relationships are the context in which our God-given needs for love, comfort, support, understanding, and accountability are met.

In the places where you have closed off people and isolated yourself, we encourage you to begin to embrace the relationships in your life, especially those that you find at your local church. We need each other!

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

RELATIONSHIP CIRCLES

Relationships

1 Corinthians 12:18-19 (TPT)

But God has carefully designed each member and placed it in the body to function as He desires. A diversity is required, for if the body consisted of one single part, there wouldn't be a body at all!

During Jesus' time of ministry, He chose a core team of twelve people, all with varying personalities and strengths to travel with Him. Just as Jesus placed value on relationships, so should we!

There are three types of relationship circles that are important for all of us to have—mentor relationships, peer relationships, and relationships with people who you can invest into. Mentors are people who can speak wisdom and encouragement into your life because they are further along in their journey than you are. Peers are those who are in the same stage of life as you. You are able to relate with your peers and offer mutual support. People who you can invest into are those who you can share wisdom and encouragement with. You get to cheer them on as they navigate seasons of life that you have already walked through.

See if you can identify these three types of relationships in your life. If you notice that you are lacking in one or more of these relationships, begin looking for people who you can develop these relationships with. As we both receive and give in relationships, we experience fulfillment, encouragement, and growth!

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

STEPPING INTO FORGIVENESS

Relationships

Ephesians 4:32 (CSB)

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

One of the greatest challenges we face in relationships is holding onto unforgiveness towards others. Maybe you have been hurt by a parent, friend, or spouse, and you feel like the hurt is too deep to forgive. Although the wounds caused by others' actions and words are very real, God is more than able to heal our hearts and bind up our places of brokenness if we are willing to release the hurt to Him.

By holding onto anger and unforgiveness, it might seem that we are being justified, but the truth is that we are only hurting ourselves. As we allow unforgiveness and bitterness to take place in our hearts, what was an initial wound turns into a chronic issue that continually affects our lives.

As we begin to walk in forgiveness, we find freedom and joy in our relationships that we didn't know were missing. Embracing forgiveness is not for the benefit of the person who caused pain, it is for the person who experienced pain.

It is a process, often requiring us to daily choose to forgive, but God is faithful to heal us and bring justice as we trust Him. When it feels like you cannot find the strength to forgive, be encouraged that God is with you strengthening and empowering you!

A prayer to release forgiveness: "Lord, I release _____ for _____. I need your strength to walk in forgiveness, and I ask that You would heal the heartache and pain I have experienced. I trust You to be my Defender. In Jesus' Name, Amen."

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

OVERLOOKING OFFENSES

Relationships

Proverbs 19:11 (NLT)

Sensible people control their temper; they earn respect by overlooking wrongs.

Hebrews 12:15 (TPT)

And make sure no one lives with a root of bitterness sprouting within them which will only cause trouble and poison the hearts of many.

No one is perfect—we have all realized this by now! We make mistakes, say things without thinking, and take thoughtless action at times. Although we are often quick to overlook our own mistakes, overlooking others' mistakes can be one of the most challenging parts of our relationships. If we can learn to continually trust God, releasing our offenses to Him, our relationships will grow stronger, deeper, and richer.

Holding onto offense allows bitterness to take root in our hearts. The Bible says that if we hold onto bitterness, it begins to poison our lives. Bitterness will taint our perspective of life, convincing us that everyone is against us. It will steal our joy, peace, and relationships if we continue to dwell on the wrongs that others have done towards us.

Don't allow one event to continue to affect your life—practice releasing offense and bitterness as soon as you recognize it in your life. As you do this, you will walk in a greater sense of peace and joy. A prayer to let go of bitterness: "Father, I release the bitterness I have been holding onto. I welcome You into the places of pain I have experienced and ask You to heal me in the way that only you can. In Jesus' Name, Amen."

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

A HEART OF HONOR

Relationships

Romans 12:10 (ESV)

Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor.

Honor is one of the most important keys to having healthy relationships. When we begin to be intentional about honoring the people around us, we will see relationships rise to new levels.

What does honoring others look like practically?

Speaking words of life and encouragement over people is one of the most powerful ways that you can show honor. You might be waiting to honor someone until they honor you, but you can be the one to change the relationship. People will rise to the level of encouragement we give them. Look for the gifts and talents in your family, your friends, and your co-workers, and call them out. Pull out the potential in the people around you.

We also show honor to those around us by covering them. The Bible says that love covers others. We cover others by not talking about their faults or exposing their mistakes to other people. When you face challenges in your relationships, choose not to allow conflict to create strife and division in your world, but choose to cover others with love as you work through whatever you may be facing. Being a person who honors and covers others is a daily choice, but if you begin to develop these characteristics in your life, your relationships will reach new levels.

Think about your relationships and choose someone you can be intentional about honoring. Ask God to show you how you can best honor them.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

THE PROMISE IN BEING PLANTED

Relationships

Psalms 92:13 (NKJV)

Those who are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God.

The principle of being planted—of being invested in your local church—is one of the most powerful principles in the Bible. Scripture says that when we are planted, we will flourish. Through involvement in the community of our local church, we grow spiritually and find fulfillment.

Being planted is not just about going to church, it is about building relationships with other believers. Through relationships with people on the same God-journey, we get to do life with those around us. We become family with them as we both give and receive support.

Psalms 92:13 paints a picture of someone being planted or rooted when they invest themselves into the house of God, the local church. If you have ever seen a tree trying to withstand the forces of a hurricane, you know how important it is for the tree to have a strong root system. The tree might shake, it might bend, but because it has a strong support system it does not fall. This same principle applies to us as believers—if we want to live lives of strength and victory, even in times of adversity, we must cultivate faith-based, supportive relationships around us.

At Grace, we engage in community through our Life Groups and through our volunteer team, The ONETeam. Go to www.grace.one/groups for more information about our Life Groups and www.grace.one/serve for information about The ONETeam.

GRACE'S HISTORY

22

The Best is Yet
to Come

Ephesians 2:10 (NLT)

For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.

In 1966, Franklin and Joyce Jones moved to Houston with their three children and became pastors of a little Pentecostal church on Mt. Houston Road. As the decades passed, the little Pentecostal church moved addresses, changed its name to Grace Church, welcomed pastoral leadership from Pastor Brett Jones and Pastor Scott Jones, and began to grow as a nondenominational church on the Northeast side of Houston.

By the early 2000s, Grace had overcome being a monoculture congregation and separated itself from an isolating denomination. Grace Church built a new sanctuary and office building and is now a place where someone can find rest, healing, peace, hope, and grace.

In 2008, the Garden Oaks Campus officially made Grace a multi-site church. In a short five years, we added Liberty (2012) and Tomball (2013) as Grace Campuses.

In the spirit of generational transfer and following the voice of God, early in 2023 Pastor Brett became the sole Senior Pastor and Pastor Scott became the Lead Pastor. The delineation of terminology is in keeping with the times and the forward motion of our church. In years to come when transitions are upon us, the role of senior pastor will be held by a single individual. The spirit in which Pastor Brett and Pastor Scott have operated for 28 years has not changed – brothers by birth, friends by choice, and ministry partners by God's design.

We believe the best is yet to come for Grace Church, and we believe the best is yet to come for you! You've begun a journey with Jesus, and we're grateful you've chosen to walk out this journey at Grace. This week you will have an opportunity to learn how you can influence the Gospel working in your life.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

FAITH AND HOPE

The Best is Yet
to Come

Jeremiah 29:11 (NIV)

For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord. "Plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a future and a hope.

By now, you may be familiar with Grace's vision statement: We are one church in many locations, multi-cultural and multi-generational, spreading the hope of Jesus until everyONE hears.

The Bible says that we use faith to see the things we hope to become our reality, hoping for things we cannot yet see. We have placed our faith in Jesus, and now we are hoping for life eternal with Him. You have faith in the chair you're sitting in, and you hope to not fall to the ground.

What would a life filled with the hope of Jesus look like? Blessed, worry-free, secure... Jesus' hope isn't this effervescent, whimsical cloud painted in shades of cotton candy, that if we try hard enough, we can grasp some of the sweet, blue and pink airy hope. That is not it at all! Jesus has a plan, a whole active plan, just for you! This plan is fully loaded with hope for your life. You've accepted Him as your Lord and Savior, and you now have access to Him and that active hope in your life.

Now that you're here, your life can be the biggest beacon of hope for those you encounter throughout your life. How you live, how you speak, how you treat people – all of these things and more are ways you can show that you have accessed the hope of Jesus and that it is available to others.

Just like the church's vision statement, you can spread the hope of Jesus until every-ONE hears.

NEW BELIEVERS DEVOTIONAL

GENEROSITY

The Best is Yet
to Come

Proverbs 11:25 (NLT)

The generous will prosper; those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed.

Generosity is one of the cornerstones of Grace Church. As a church, we make it a priority to be generous with our time, talents, and treasure.

You can be generous with time through relationships with your family and friends – take time to listen to a friend going through a hard time, have an afternoon in the park with your kids, set aside time purposed to share with your spouse. With your talents, you have the opportunity to serve in different areas at Grace on The ONE-Team. Being generous with treasure most often is represented through paying your tithe and giving your offering. Tithe is the first 10% of your income given back to God. Our pastors have often said that living off of my blessed 90% is better than having 100% of my income without God – My 90 and God's 10 is better than my 100.

Generosity is a way of life at Grace. You can be a part of this way of life by joining The Legacy Team or going on a mission trip and giving to those we're connected with throughout the world. Living a generous life is possible for you and your family.

Psalms 145:4 (NIV)

One generation commends your works to another; they tell of your mighty acts.

At Grace, we know that every season of life holds great significance. There is a need for people across generations, backgrounds, and cultures to participate in the church body.

We are passionate about intentionally bridging any gaps that might exist between generations. Primarily, we do this through our serving opportunities. On any weekend, you will see volunteers ranging from elementary school age up to seniors (65+) serving alongside each other. We believe that every season holds great significance, and we want each person to embrace that significance at whatever age and whatever stage of life they find themselves in.

Just as the Bible talks about, it is so important that we be the example of what it looks like to walk faithfully with the Lord, such as we have in the lives of those who are seasoned in the faith. We also need the passion and energy of those who are young, both in age and in faith, to bring a sense of vitality to our local body of believers. The kingdom of God is strictly inclusive, welcoming all generations to play a part — we want to reflect this here at Grace.

EXCELLENCE

The Best is Yet

Daniel 6:3 (ESV)

Then this Daniel became distinguished above all the other high officials and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him. And the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.

At Grace, one of the key values that has shaped our culture is excellence. As believers, we believe that we are called to live, work, and create with a higher standard. In the Bible, we read that Daniel, a man who worked for a king, had a spirit of excellence, which propelled him to greater status and promotion. He was distinguished because of his character.

One of the main aspects of excellence is integrity. Simply, this is us living with authenticity and honesty in every area of our lives. Does this mean that we must be perfect? Not at all! It means that we give our best in every area, and when we do mess up, we don't try to hide it or sweep our mistakes under the rug. We fully embrace God's grace and strength as we move forward, learning and growing.

As we begin to grasp the grace and love that God has shown us, we can't help but respond with a thankful heart—wanting to passionately give back to Him the best of ourselves we have to offer. Practically, this looks like not cutting corners on your job, but doing your best even if it goes unnoticed. It looks like not gossiping about your friends behind their back even though they might never know. It looks like going the extra mile, being attentive to details, and finishing a task fully.

Through these simple acts, we bring honor to God and set ourselves apart as people who are unwilling to compromise regardless of the culture around us.

Romans 12:6-8 (NLT)

In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you. If your gift is serving others, serve them well. If you are a teacher, teach well. If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it is giving, give generously. If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly.

God created us each with a special purpose in mind. We all have a set of gifts and talents that are unique to us! The Bible says that we have these abilities so that we can walk in the purpose God prepared for us before we were even born. Not only were we created for a special purpose, but God equipped us with everything we need to fulfill that purpose.

In Membership Class, you'll be taking a gifts assessment that will highlight some of the strengths you possess. Within these strengths, you'll begin to see yourself in new ways and understand where your purpose can be carried out in your life, in your family, and in your church.

As we learn our strengths – our gifts and the things we are good at – we can learn to develop them as we work to fulfill the special things God has called us to do.
